The Property

On entering the property, the central hallway provides access to the main ground-floor accommodation. To the rear is a generous, light and airy living room enjoying a westerly aspect, with a feature log-burning stove and bi-fold doors opening directly onto the decking and garden. To the front, the dual-aspect kitchen/dining room offers plenty of space for family dining and entertaining, with light grey gloss units, ample work surfaces and useful understairs storage. A pocket door leads through to a separate utility area, with a further pocket door providing access to the ground-floor WC.

The first floor continues the sense of space and versatility, with three good-sized bedrooms offering flexible accommodation for a growing family or guests. Bedrooms two and four overlook the attractive rear garden, while bedroom three is positioned to the front. Also on this floor is a generous family bathroom with a full-size bath and separate corner shower. Stairs lead to the second floor, where the principal bedroom creates a spacious and private retreat at the top of the house, with plenty of room for fitted or freestanding bedroom furniture and additional storage. This is complemented by its own spacious shower room. The garden is a particular feature of the property. Its westerly aspect makes the most of the afternoon and evening sun, with a large deck immediately behind the house providing plenty of space for outdoor dining and entertaining. Beyond this is a generous lawn with established planting and raised beds for growing fruit and vegetables, together with a covered pizza-oven and BBQ area. At the far end of the garden is a substantial summer house with power and lighting, currently used as a combined garden office and gym. To the front, the gravelled driveway provides ample off-road parking, with a pathway giving side access to the rear garden.
